I want to participate in the Pitchfork & Crow 2012 CSA season! I am committing to pay $620 in exchange for a weekly share of local, seasonal vegetables for 28 weeks beginning May 22nd and ending November 27th. I understand that Pitchfork & Crow is dedicated to providing 28 weeks of quality vegetables and I recognize that some variables, such as severe weather, are uncontrollable.

2012 CSA Details:

Duration

The CSA season will run 28 weeks, from May 22nd thru November 27th.

Payment

Membership is $620. There are two payment options:

- Single-payment option: full $620 due by April 1st
- Two-payment option: pay $310 by April 1st and $310 by Aug. 1st

Once memberships are confirmed, members will be mailed an invoice.

Pick-up

CSA pick-up will be Tuesday evenings, 4:30pm - 6:30pm

Pick-up location will be near Willamette University on the corner of Church St and Ferry St, in the parking lot behind the Willamette Sustainable Communities building and the United Methodist Church.

The CSA pick-up will be market-style, enabling you to choose your vegetables from the quantities listed. Please bring your own bags for bringing home your vegetables.

Anything you don't want from your share can be left for donation to a local charity. If you can't make it to a pick-up, you may offer your share to a friend or neighbor and tell them to check in with us upon arrival.

We'll send a reminder e-mail at the beginning of May with further details.
